

Spring 2021 Seminar

Rule-Following and Normativity

Saul Kripke and Romina Padró

Graduate Center, CUNY Wednesdays from 2 to 4 pm via Zoom

Schedule

February 3rd: “The Rule-Following Considerations Revisited”, Saul Kripke (CUNY, Graduate Center & Saul Kripke Center)

February 10th: “Kripke and Wittgenstein on Rule-Following”, Oskari Kuusela (University of East Anglia)

February 17th: “The Adoption Problem and the Kripkenstein Connection”, Romina Padró (CUNY, Graduate Center & Saul Kripke Center)

February 24th: “In Defense of Semantic Primitivism”, Anandi Hattiangadi (Stockholm University)

March 3rd: “A Minimalist Sceptical Solution as a Revisionary Account of Meaning”, Krzysztof Poslajko (Jagiellonian University)

March 10th: “Automata, Rule following, and Supervenience”, Allen Hazen (University of Alberta)

March 17th: “Kripke’s Paradox of Meaning”, Paul Horwich (NYU)

March 24th: “Resisting Reductionism”, Olivia Sultanesu (University of Chicago)

March 31st: “Use and representation: The skeptical solution”, José Zalabardo (University College London)

April 7th: “Putting Wittgenstein Back Into Kripkenstein: Rule-following Skepticism and Knowing How to Go On”, Hannah Ginsborg (UC Berkeley)

April 14th: “Rules of language and the Locus of Normativity”, Noam Chomsky (MIT)

April 21st: “Semantic Normativity Reconsidered”, Claudine Verheggen (York University)

April: 28th: “Kripke’s Knowledge Argument Against Materialism”, Adriana Renero (NYU Center for Mind, Brain, and Consciousness & Saul Kripke Center)

May 5th: “A New Problem for Rule-following”, Mark Hogarth (Cambridge University)

May 10th: ““Rule-following without Reasons” Revisited”, Crispin Wright (NYU)

May 12th: Alex Miller (University of Otago)

May 19th: “The Normativity of Meaning Revisited”, Paul Boghossian (NYU)

May 26th: “Lessons on Functionalism and Automata”, Saul Kripke (CUNY, Graduate Center & Saul Kripke Center)

For Registered Students Only • Extra Meetings:

Mondays from 2pm to 4pm

Office Hours: Thursdays from 2 pm. (Please request a meeting in advance.)